Summer is Fast Approaching!

“Be Faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies”—
Mother Teresa

The Summer may not quite be here yet, but the summer heat and weather has certainly made appearances. This is the season that many are hosting graduation parties for those about to head to High School, or College. There are also plenty of summer Family BBQ's and Family Reunions that we could be a perfect addition to. We have the best prices in the area, and we offer all of the latest and greatest games and hardware that the industry has to offer. PS5, Xbox Series X, Nintendo Switch and of course, VR! All at no additional cost.
